

Hi Harold + Lil

How are you? It's Memorial Day and I thought of you + Lil, so I decided to write. Boy do I miss everybody. Everything up here is very tense, but I'm learning to live with it. My brother is still ill but the doctors feel he is acting violent because of his medication, so they reduced it and he has been acting better. I was sorry to hear about what happened to the Ray appeal. How ~~do~~ is the Kennedy assassination inquiry going, I've been getting bits and pieces through the newspaper, but you know how reliable that info can be.

You closer than I am, so you probably know more than I do. I'm coming down for the Fourth of July,
I'll probably arrive
on the 30th of June,
Will go to go, write
back, looking forward to seeing you
Love.

Hallmark

Lela
